SISFA announces partnership with Sharequity

SISFA provides an important link between fund trustees, the superannuation industry, authorities and the community through its regular liaison on matters such as policy, proposed legislation and rulings impacting on SMSFs. As an association it encourages high professional standards through its professional membership and public information initiatives and is often sought after by the financial media for comment on Government policy or ATO rulings.

SISFA today announced that it has partnered with Sharequity Pty Ltd (www.sharequity.com.au) as a Premium Annual sponsor.

Speaking about this partnership, Michael Lorimer, Managing Director SISFA said:

“SISFA is delighted to welcome Sharequity as a Premium business partner. We have a range of exciting information initiatives planned for trustees and specialist SMSF practitioners including trustee education days, more webinars and our perennially popular SMSF Forum. Sharequity’s support will greatly assist us in improving our products and services for members.”

Sharequity is an Australian equity capital raising platform that connects self-directed investors with companies seeking to raise capital. By leveraging technology Sharequity facilitates traditional & digital methods of capital raising and equity investing. Sharequity’s platform simplifies and streamlines the investment process, offering a wider range of opportunities to a larger investor audience.

Speaking about this partnership, Geoff Reilly, CEO of Sharequity said “Sharequity is very pleased and excited to be partnering with a quality and progressive organisation such as SISFA in being able to provide its members with a broad range of investment opportunities and member services”.
